

Onchosiphon (Pentzia) & Foveolina dichotoma

Common name: Stinkkruid
Family: Asteraceae
Habitat: Disturbed soil such as old lands and roadsides.
Plant description: mat-forming, winter-growing annual.
Palatability: (★) very low
Other uses: pioneer on bare ground
Seed description: small (<2 mm)
Viable seeds per kg: 8,380,000
When to plant: autumn

Growth habit – a winter-growing herbaceous plant. Strongly aromatic. Dies in October after flowering

Distribution of stinkkruid *Onchosiphon piluliferum

Excellent pioneer on bare soil provided that it sown in autumn and receives adequate autumn and winter rainfall

Scale: 1cm